

Ecco alcuni articoli interessanti sul personaggio di John Branca, esecutore testamentario dei beni di Michael Jackson.

Le informazioni qui di seguito rivelano uno scenario parecchio inquietante sull'avvocato, ed è per questo che sostengo con sicurezza che i figli di Michael di quello che c'è non vedranno praticamente niente.

In questo articolo si parla di John Branca come presidente della Grammy Foundation and Musicares Foundation. Questo spiega la presenza dei figli di Michael sul palco dei Grammys. La sua vice, Mary Pattiz, ci tengo a precisare, è una specialista in problemi di alcool e droghefarmaci (e qual è la causa della morte di Michael?).

Musicares & The Grammy Foundation Elect New Officers And New Directors

"The GRAMMY Foundation and MusiCares Foundation, affiliated charities of The Recording Academy, announced that their respective Boards have elected new Officers as well as additional Directors. John Branca, a partner at Ziffren, Brittenham, Branca, Fischer, Gilbert-Lurie & Stiffelman LLP, will serve as Board Chair for MusiCares. Steve Schnur, worldwide executive of music and marketing for Electronic Arts, will continue to serve as the GRAMMY Foundation's Chair."

In addition to the newly elected Branca as Chair, the MusiCares roster of Officers is filled by certified drug and alcohol counselor Mary Pattiz as Vice Chair and the Urban Network's Publisher and CEO Miller London as Secretary/Treasurer.

Questa è una parte di interrogatorio fatto da Mesereau ai tempi del processo a David LeGrand, che ha confermato che Branca è stato licenziato da Michael anni prima e che era stato già pagato per i suoi servizi.

E' interessante capire perché Branca stia ancora rappresentando Michael Jackson, dato che quest'ultimo lo aveva già licenziato.

Mesereau : All right. So you would agree with me that Mr. Branca worked for Mr. Jackson, was paid for by Mr. Jackson, correct? He received money from Mr. Jackson for services, true?

LeGrand : I believe the Ziffren law firm received compensation from Mr. Jackson for legal services, yes.

Mesereau : Do you think Mr. Branca ever received any of those moneys for work that he performed?

LeGrand : I believe Mr. Branca was paid by his firm, yes.

Mesereau : All right. And Mr. Jackson (sic) was one of the people he fired when he was cleaning house, true?

LeGrand : Yes
